

MOTEL BEDS

Motel Beds is a rock band from Dayton, Ohio.

They have been together in various permutations since the proto-blog days of 2003, when their first EP "Hasta Mañana" garnered positive feedback. A track from this EP, Laugh Until You Die, was included on the first volume of the popular series "The Artist's Den."

Time passed, as it must. In 2007, the band solidified their line-up in 2007 and managed to write and record three albums between 2009-2010: "Go For a Dive," "Moondazed," and their first full-length, "Feelings."

Like men possessed, they have soldiered on, writing and recorded at an astounding rate and, in March 2011, released their critically acclaimed album, "Sunfried Dreams."

The band is now pleased to announce the release of their second LP of the year, "Tango Boys," on Chapel Hill, NC's No More Fake Labels. The band was also warmly received at the 2011 CMJ Festival, and had its music hand-picked to appear on the 2011 CMJ Freeplay mixtape.

Momentum continues to build with a track from "Tango Boys," Tropics of the Sand (featuring vocals by Kelley Deal of The Breeders) already playing on Sirius XM Radio. In 2012, the band plans more touring, more recording and playing the No More Fake Labels showcase at the South by Southwest festival.

PRESS

"The band is just underground enough to keep up the mystique and pique one's curiosity. Their highly melodic vibe is inviting."

- Huffington Post

"One of the things that first drew me to blogging was the idea of sharing music with people: music that just needed to be heard. Well, this is one of those bands that our readers absolutely must hear."

- TurntableKitchen.com

"Sunfried Dreams is simply a wildly successful rock record; a feel-good power pop party that goes great with a cold beer or ten."

- YouIndie.com

"A straight-up rock 'n' roll fantasy we could use more of these days."

- Pop On Purpose
